

Bredfeldt-Hargis

Tiffany Gail Hargis of Springdale and Philip Alan Bredfeldt of Tucson, Ariz., were married at 2 p.m. May 26, 2001, at First Baptist Church in Springdale. The Rev. Dan Lehman officiated.

The bride is the daughter of GaLyn and Tim Hargis of Springdale. The groom is the son of Ruth and Dr. Ray Bredfeldt of Fayetteville.

The bride wore a gown with an alencon lace bodice accented with pearls and sequins; a sweetheart neckline dipping to a V in the back; a formal empire skirt with an overlay of chiffon, lace and pearls; and a cathedral train with a white satin bow and tiny covered buttons ending at the lace trim of the skirt. She wore a crescent headpiece of pearls and sequins holding a fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a cascading bouquet of ivory roses and miniature calla lilies accented with Italian ruskus, bear grass and English ivy.

Heather Artman was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the groom's sister Sarah Bredfeldt of Fayetteville, Jennifer Zimpel of Little Rock and Chrissy Milner of Little Rock.

Dr. Ray Bredfeldt served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Seth Copeland of Fayetteville, Ronnie Fast of Springdale and the bride's brother Jon Hargis of Springdale.

Luke Marvin and Jeremy Cheezum seated guests.

Music was provided by Miriam Suzuki, pianist, and Katherine Lewis and Carl Yeager, vocalists.

A reception was held at the church, with the bride's grandmother Frances Wood, Pam Long, Teeta Rollins, Janet Carmichael, Amanda Lee and Stephanie Ho assisting.

After a wedding trip to Maui, Hawaii, the couple is at home in Tucson.
