Attorney for Appellees

¶1 Appellees, Tiffany and Philip Bredfeldt, hereby oppose the Electronic Frontier Foundation's ("EFF") motion for leave to appear as amicus curiae. The EFF claims that it can provide information, perspective, or argument that can help the appellate court beyond the help that the parties' lawyers provide. As such, the EFF seeks leave to file pursuant to ARCAP Rule 16(b)(1)(C)(iii).

¶2 Appellant has been provided counsel who is unassailably competent. Counsel for Appellant advanced largely the same argument on Appellant's behalf that the EFF advances in its proposed brief. Because counsel for Appellant has adequately briefed the issue, Appellees request that this Court deny the EFF's motion for leave and strike its brief submitted on August 11, 2017.
